Fredericksburg Police Attempting to Locate Kidnapping Suspect from Wake County, North Carolina

Earlier today at 9:45 a.m., patrol officers were checking a suspicious vehicle at Old Mill Park located at 2201 Caroline Street. The driver was identified as Philip McClanahan, 26, of North Carolina. The suspect did not comply with officers' commands and fled heading west on Caroline Street in a black 2013 four-door Honda Civic EXL bearing a North Carolina license plate AJK-8562 on the rear of the vehicle. The vehicle has no front license plate.

McClanahan has a turban, facial hair, and was wearing a hooded sweatshirt. McClanahan was accompanied by a passenger wearing a hooded-sweatshirt, leather jacket, and large sunglasses.

McClanahan is wanted on a charge of kidnapping by the Wake County Sheriff's Office. The Fredericksburg Police Department obtained charges against McClanahan for reckless driving, obstructing justice, and assault on law enforcement by motor vehicle.

The Fredericksburg Police Department asks anyone with information regarding McClanahan's whereabouts call (540) 373-3122.
