Fredericksburg Police Arrest Local High School Teacher for Indecent Liberties with a Child

Yesterday, November 9th, 2021, the Fredericksburg Police Department arrested Marcus Salley, 33, of Fredericksburg on two charges of indecent liberties with a child and a charge of solicitation to possess child pornography. Salley was a high school teacher in Stafford County.

In early September, the Stafford County Sheriff's Office was notified that a high school teacher was having relations with a minor. Stafford Resource Officer Deputy Flues initiated the investigation and determined Salley was having an online relationship with a juvenile who resides in another state through an instant messaging app. The case was turned over to Fredericksburg Police Department Detective Lovett when it was determined Salley's actions occurred in the City of Fredericksburg.

Salley remains incarcerated at the Rappahannock Regional Jail without bond.

On behalf of the Fredericksburg Police Department, thank you to Deputy Flues for his extensive and thorough investigation.
