Fredericksburg Police Arrest Vehicle Tampering/ Weapons Offense Suspect

On May 15th, 2021 at approximately 3:00 a.m., a couple noticed a group of individuals rummaging through several vehicles outside their home in the 1100 block of Nolan Street. The couple approached the individuals about their actions, at which time one of the individuals fired a handgun towards them. The group then fled on foot.

The case was assigned to Detective G. Mejia, who through evidence collected during the investigation, was able to determine Hasan Stewart, 25, of Richmond City was the suspect.

On February 9th, 2022, the Richmond City Jail served the following warrants on Stewart:

- Shooting with intent to maim, kill, etc. (two counts)
- Discharge of a firearm in a public place
- Brandishing a firearm (two counts)
- Vehicle tampering (six counts)
