

Q5 The City is considering two major options concerning the slave auction block. Either option will need further development before action could be taken. Please check the box next to the course of action that most closely reflects your preference for the future of the slave auction block.

Answered: 602 Skipped: 0

ANSWER CHOICES	RESPONSES
Keep the slave auction block in its current location, but use the existing right-of-way to build a more prominent public space that buffers the encounter and places the artifact in context, view rendering. This option envisions interpretive panels, protective measures, and a better design for pedestrian flow.	60.30% 363
Replace the auction block with a historic marker and directions to its new location, likely the Fredericksburg Area Museum. FAM is preparing a permanent exhibit that tells the story of the lives of the working people of Fredericksburg.	21.10% 127
Neither of the above options.	18.60% 112
TOTAL	602

Summary of online input as of 12:00 PM September 25, 2017

Total Responses: 602

Total from City of Fredericksburg: 209

Keep: 125

Move: 51

Other: 33

Total from Stafford and Spotsylvania: 322

Keep: 195

Move: 61

Other: 66

Total Input
On-line public comments	602
Public comments at 9/23/2017 forum	26
Public comments through e-mails & letters	23
Total	651